La Tribuna pubblica una informazione secondo cui l'Austria sta preparando in m porte della Dalmazia due potenti dreadnoughts con l'intenzione di ripetere con esse l'impresa del Goeben e del con esse l'imprena del Gooden e del Breslau, cloc' di forzare il blocco degli alleati nell'Adriatico e ranggiungere i Dardanelli e portare così' soccorso alla Turchia nel Mar Naro, dave la situazione è divenuto gravissima in acguilto alla rigoroza e vittoriosa offensiva dei russi nell'Asia Minore.

Il giornale romano dice che appunto er questa ragione le mine che ostruivano passaggio dei Dardanelli sono state osse dai turchi e dai tedeschi affinche le due navi austrinche potessero trova ro il passo verso il Bosforo ed il Mar

Intanto al dice qui che il pericolo del refensiva turca contro l'Egitto non e' sucora completamente rimosso, ma esse e' direntato di una possibilita' assai remota. Infatti la stagione calda si approssima e con essa sparisce la possibilita' di far marciare grandi forze attraverso il deserto, a meno che giganteschi preparativi di ordine tecnico non siano stati gia' fatti. E che sia cosi' non si ha alcun segno, almeno tanto per quanto sia neces-sario per forze che devono battersi con quelle che sono alla difesa del Canale di

LA BATTAGLIA DI VERDUN Continua con violente accanimento la battaglia di Verdun, che ancora non ac-cenna a raggiungere ta sua fase risolu-fiva nonostante che duri dal 21 Febbraio. Il Ministero della Guerra francese ha annunciato che le forze della Repubblica hanno arrestato l'offensiva tedesca nella sona del villaggio e dei forte di Vaux. Jeri era la truppe tedesche avevano iniziato un nuovo sforzo per sfondare le linee fran-cesi tra Douaumont e Vaux, ma poche forze tedesche che erano entrate nel villaggio di Vaux ne furono subito dopo cac-ciate con assalti alla baionetta da parte dei francesi. Masse interminabili di truppe tedesche erano stats lanciate con-tro il forte ed il villaggio, ma le linee francssi resistettero. La lotta pero' in questo settore non e' terminata. I tedeschi transportano ora in uno ed ora in un altro settore il loro sforzo, ma il loro successo e' temporaneo, dura cioe' fino a che i francesi non possono accorrere al punto minacciato.

I SOTTOMARINI,) Telegrafano da Parigi che il giornale Il Echo de Paris afforma in un articolo che vi sono nei Mediterraneo 25 sottoma-rial austriaci a tedeschi, molti dei quali sono stati contruiti in Austria ed altri in-viati in pezzi dalla Germania e messi in-zieme negli arsenali austriaci, mentre alcuni sottomarini tedeschi sono riusciti Manare attraverso lo stretto di Gibilterra. L'Echo de Paris dice che questi sotto-marini sono rifornati da mercanti greci ed hanno basi di rifornimento sulla costa della Grecia, e precisamente su quella dei Peloponneso, dell'isola di Creta e delle mole di Cos. Leros e Samo. Il governo greco ha accordato alle navi alleate il permesso di periustrare le coste della Gre-da, e si crede che queste basi saranno tate trovate e distrutte.

Oggi al dice in questi circoli che la Grecia seguira' la Rumania nel caso che questa decidera' di entrare nella guerra à fianco degli alleati. Si dice pure che l'intervento rumeno non puo' piu' oltre

TRAIL OF SOCKS LEADS TO ARREST OF 9 BOYS

"Chief" Admits Leading Lads in Raid on Haberdashery Store in Germantown

A trail of violent-hued socks led to the arrest of a band of nine youths in Germantown, said to be responsible for the theft of 60 pairs of silk socks, dozens of fangy handerchiefs and many other articles of haberdashery. The nine boys will be arraigned today in the House of Detention.

They are at the age when short pants are worn on weekdays and long pants on Sunday. Some of them said they wanted to look like "other men" and they didn't wa: . to wear long stockings with their lo: others. So they were going to wear scens, "even if we had to steat them." The social they carried away and didn't like they cattered in the streets of Germantown, and this was their undoing. Acting Detective Corry, of the Germantown po-lice station, found the discarded nocks and rounded up the culprits.

"Caps" Scaringi admitted that he was the 14-year-old "chief" of the band. They broke into the mon's furnishing store of Lewis Shirack, at 2941 Wayne avenue. on Sunday night. "Capa" was auctioneer on sunday night. Caps was auctioneer. They smashed showcases and turned the shop upside down. Then "Caps" put everything under the hammer.

"It didn't seem so had to take the things after the kids bought 'em." said "Caps," "even if we did only pretend to pay for 'em."

The other members of the band accested were George Everman, 14 years old, 4919 Keyser street; Thomas Brown, 13 years old, 148 West Logan; James Cum-mings, 15 years old, Wissahickon avenue and Clapler street: Francis Muldoon, 13 years old, 259 Ceroda street: William Durkin, 13 years old, 5022 Tacoma street; John Harrington, 15 years old, 212 Ceroin street; James Curran, 14 years old, 244 Ceroin street, and Samuel Banks, 13 years old, 167 West Logan street

CITY PHYSICIANS TO QUIT

Medical Officers' Positions Abolished by Councils

Dr. William K. Mueller, chief medical examiner of the Civil Service Commission, and Dr. Clinton J. Foltz, assistant medical examiner, will sever their connection with the city service next Wednesday. The positions they hold have been abolished by Councils. Both physicians served under the Blankenburg administration and both were dis missed by the new commissioners when they took office. The dismission were found to be illegal.

In order to secure their removal Councils passed new appropriation bills, leaving out the places and creating a new position, that of medical director.

FILM ADVERTISING

An Emportant feature of our unique service is our ability to accept and display advertising in theatres throughout the United States. This is termed LOCALITY ADVERTISING, and while it is capacially appealing to the National Advertiser, it is equally appealing to the Local Advertiser, because it will effectively reach nearby prospective customers.

For instance, we are displaying artistic, entertaining and instructive films in selected theatres throughout this City, and advertisers in the vicinity of the same may reserve space therefor. Scenarios are written to order, free of charge, and submitted for approval, without entailing any obligation. If accepted, exclusive right thereto is granted, with the additional guarantee that no competing advertisement will be shown at the same theatre.
